Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, As a young child, Dale Kutil had a calling to the priesthood and has devoted his life to this vocation and serving others; and,

Whereas, Father Dale Kutil recognized the importance of not only celebrating in the church but outside the church for fellowship and for the community to grow personally and spiritually in a safe Christian environment and that he has opened the doors to St. John's Hall and kitchen countless times to accommodate these needs; and,

Whereas, Father Dale has spent countless hours alongside parishioners preparing the Fall Turkey Dinner and the Spring Soup Supper and many other food gatherings, and his demands to remain in the kitchen left no turkey dressing unperfected; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and appropriate that this hall be renamed Padre Hall to honor Father Dale; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many accomplishments and years of service of this South Dakotan:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 12, 2004, as in South Dakota, and I join Father Dale, his family, friends and parishioners in celebration of this day.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
